

John Morning

Trustee, Turrell Fund

An active career of service for more than 40 years in leadership positions with a score of organizations, seeing the challenges and opportunities in fields as diverse as higher education, banking, philanthropy, the visual arts, theater, and historic preservation.

As a graphic designer, John specialized in publications and materials for such leading cultural and philanthropic institutions as The Henry Luce Foundation, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum for African Art, and the Schomburg Center of the New York Public Library.

He is currently a Trustee/Director of the CUNY Graduate Center Foundation, Henry Street Settlement, International Print Center New York, Lincoln Center Theater, Turrell Fund, and a gubernatorial appointee to the New York State Council on the Arts, a state granting agency.

Former Trustee/Director of Association of Governing Boards (Chairman 1999-2001), Brooklyn Academy of Music, Brooklyn Philharmonic, City University of New York, Dime Savings Bank of New York, Lincoln Center Institute, Museum for African Art, Museum of Modern Art Committee on Education, New York Council for the Humanities, Rockefeller Brothers Fund, and Wilberforce University.

John Morning has served as a Trustee on the Turrell Fund Board since 2011.