

The Reverend Cn. Dr. John P. Mitchell

Trustee, Turrell Fund

Chairman, Personal & Governance Committee

New Jersey Planning Committee

After a thirty-three-year career practicing securities and corporate law John retired as a Partner of the New York firm Cahill Gordon & Reindel in 2003. In the same year he was ordained as Priest in The Episcopal Church. After his ordination he served parishes in the Diocese of Newark and was then called as Rector of Church of the Advent/St. John's Chapel in Cape May in the Diocese of New Jersey. He retired as Rector in 2018 but continues to be active in a variety of roles as a priest. In 2021 he was appointed an Honorary Canon of Trinity Cathedral in Trenton. He is a past Trustee of Kent Place School and a member of various professional and scholarly associations. He also has many personal interests involving music (voice, piano, harpsichord) golf, and traveling,

John received his A.B. in History from Yale University in 1967. In 1970 he received his J.D. from Indiana University. He received an M. Phil. From Drew University in 2001 a diploma in Anglican Studies from the General Theology Seminary in 2002 and his Ph.D. in Theology and Religion from Drew University in 2007.

He is married to Dorothy "Dot" T. Mitchell and has three daughters.

John has served as a Trustee on the Turrell Fund Board since 2004.